functionaries of National Rural Health Mission (NRHM) and ICDS from 1st April 2010 to progressively replace the earlier JacchhaBacchha card. The new MCP card is increasingly viewed as a critical tool for upkeeping maternal and child health in the updated coverage of both ICDS and NRHM.

12.1.2 Midday meal programme (MDMP)

The midday meal programme (MDMP) is also known as school lunch programme. This programme has been in operation since 1961 throughout the country. In formulating midday meals for school children, the following broad principles should be kept in mind:
