but as disempowered folk needing empowerment, education,health, nutrition, gender equality,safety net in times of distress; all are needed to empower people.

7.9 Conclusion

This lesson mainly focused on some of the aspects of the Indian Economy and its resources, infrastructure facilities and energy, It also discussed the principles of Indian Economic thinkers to motivate the students to read good books on Economics Written by the great economists.

Glossary

Economic Growth	Transformation of an economy from a state of under development to a state of development which is measured by Gross Domestic Product (GDP).
Economic Development	An improvement in citizens quality of life and well being of a country which is measured by per capita income along with several other development indicators.
Gross Domestic Product	Total monetary value of the goods and services produced by that country over a specific period of time, normally a year.
Per Capita Income	Average national income per head of population. It is obtained by dividing the National Income by population size.
Natural Resources	Goods and services provided by the nature. In other words, any stock or reserve that can be drawn from nature.
Renewable Resources	Resources that can be regenerated in a given span of time.
Non-Renewable Resources	Resources that are exhaustive and cannot be regenerated
Deforestation	Clearing of forests, trees and thereby forest land is converted to a non-forest use.
Energy Crisis	Situation in which energy resources are less than the demand and there is shortage of energy.
Doctrine of Trusteeship	Doners who act as the trustees of their property or business.

Chapter-07.indd 161 20-02-2020 11:59:18