Yazhini asked, "Were his parents not angry with him?" Dad said, "They were angry. But, they knew he was happy."

One day, dengue broke out in the nearby villages. He left to those villages to treat the people. He saved the lives of many. He was soon well known in the village, and people poured in to get treated. But, one day he got infected by the disease and was taken to the city hospital. He was in critical condition. His parents were upset and worried. He told his parents that he had done his duty to the country and, was happy. In a couple of days, he died. In his memory, the people of the village have built a hospital and treated people at free of cost."

"That's really great, dad. He is a real hero.", said Yazhini.

Father replied, "Each one of us should love and respect our country. We should treat everyone around us with love and respect. That's the real service to the nation."

Glossary

honour	great respect
serving	work for a specific group or person ceremony	a formal event to celebrate an anniversary a memorial	structure established to remind of a people or event intervened	interrupt a conversation sacrifices	giving up something more valuable infected	contaminated with harmful things guarding	to watch over to protect or control