7.3.6. Steps in Preparation and Writing of Office Manuals:

A standard and an orderly procedure should be followed while preparing office manuals. If so, the prepared manual can ensure complete, accurate and comprehensive information. The preparation is to be completed within a reasonable period of time. The following steps may be taken while preparing an office manual:

1. Assigning an Individual or Formation of a Committee: An individual is enough to prepare an office manual for a small size organization. A committee has to be formed to prepare an office manual in case of large size organization. So, this formality is carried on according to the size of the organization.

2. Preparing the List of Subjects Covered: The responsible executives prepare the list of subjects to be covered in the preparation of office manual. List of subjects vary according to the type of manual preparation. The subjects and topics to be covered should be classified and arranged into logical headings and sub-headings.

3. Receiving Ideas and Suggestions: Ideas and suggestions have to be received from the managers of functional departments and supervisors as per the subjects covered. A time schedule is to be fixed for receiving ideas and suggestions.

4. Verification of Ideas and Suggestions: Received ideas and suggestions have to be tabled and the same have to be verified. Irrelevant and impracticable ideas and suggestions have to be rejected with due care.

5. Classification and Arrangement of Information: The collected information and data have to be classified and arranged under each subject and write them up in subject-wise. The information and data included should be accurate and complete in all aspects.

6. Prepare a Draft Manual: A draft manual is prepared by considering the relevance of the concerned manual. A limited number of copies of such draft manual is typed or cyclostyled for circulation. A copy of draft manual is circulated among the office manager, functional manager, union representatives and top management executives for their criticism. Such criticism is used for the betterment of the preparation of office manual.
