(iii) Personal Qualities: The main task of the office manager is to get the office work done by personnel of the office efficiently and economically. To achieve this objective he must be able to organize, inspire and lead the staff under him. He must also try to understand the ability and aptitude of each individual worker and delegate work to them accordingly. For this he must possess a number of personal qualities such as leadership, sound judgment, sense of justice and fair play, impartiality, sincerity, understanding of human nature, tact, persuasiveness etc.

1.6.2. Functions and Duties of Office Manager:

The scope of office manager's work is very wide. It differs from business to business and organization to organization and from office to office. No two office manager performs same set of functions. However, philosophers and researchers have classified the functions of office manager as below.

1. Managerial Functions
2. Supervisory Functions
3. Personnel Functions
4. Duties to the Management.

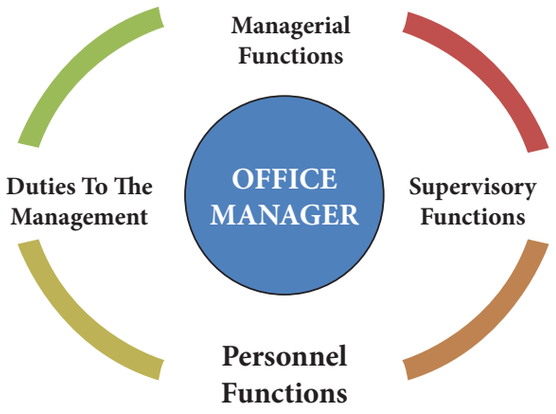

Fig. 1.10. Functions of Office Manager

1. Managerial Functions: The office manager is the administrative head of the office. It is his duty to manage the entire affairs of an office. As an administrative incharge, he is expected to perform the following functions.

a. Planning the work to be performed before hand.

b. Forecasting the future demands based on past records.

c. Organising the activities of office.

d. Co-ordinating the activities of various departments.

e. Executing the policies and programmes of the management.

f. Communicating various policy decisions to the functional managers.

g. Designing and implementing new systems and procedures.

h. Reviewing system and procedures periodically and effecting changes in them.

OSS_EM_Chapter_1.indd 10 04-03-2019 09:51:49