It is now several months since you had any dealings with us. We shd. like to know if you have any spl. reasons for leaving us off.

we are always desirous of satisfying each and all of our customers & it worries us to think you may have some cause for yr. silence.

If you think our goods or our services are faulty, write and state your cause, and, if we can, we shl. put things right. // Expecting to receive a very early reply.
