The forms can be broadly classified as under:

I. Based on the Office Function or Operation for Which They are Used, Viz.

1. Purchase Forms: A purchase form is a commercial document and first official offer issued by a buyer to a seller, indicating types, quantities, and agreed prices for products or services. E.g., Purchase requisition form, Order form

2. Sales Forms: A sales form is an internal document of the company. It is generated by the company itself for selling their goods.

3. Correspondence Forms: Any written or digital communication exchanged by two or more parties. Correspondences may come in the form of letters, emails, text messages, voicemails, notes, or postcards.

4. Accounting Forms: The account form balance sheet is a financial statement format where the assets are reported on the left side and the liabilities are reported on the right side. The account form is kind of a visual representation of the accounting equation.

II. Based on Place of Utilization:

1. Outside Contract Forms: Forms sent to customers, creditors and other persons (outside the office) with whom the firm does business from the office (e.g., cheques, orders, invoices, statements, vouchers, etc.)
