
WEAVES AND THEIR PROPERTIES

Type	Structure	Properties	Example
Plain Weave	• Warp and weft interlaced alternatively	• Flat, look identical on both sides. • Yarn count even • Balanced fabrics • Inexpensive	• Cheese cloth. • Voile
Basket Weave	• Two or more warp interlaced with one or more weft • Variation of plain	• Flat • Variation of plain • Create checker board effect • Identical on both sides. • Use of coloured yarns for variation	• 2 x 2 blouse material.
Rib Weave	• Use of cords or different type of thicker yarn in warp or weft • Cord in warp is known as warp rib • Cord in weft is known as weft rib	• Heavy • Drapes well • Creates texture and design	• Poplin • Taffeta

TDD_Final_Chapter05.indd 46 21-02-2019 11.26.38 AM