1. Human Resources: These are the capacities and characteristics of an individual. These can be used only by the person who possesses them. They have the high potential to achieve what we want and many a times may not be cultivated or made available. Most of the time, families underestimate these resources and are unaware of them.
   - a. Knowledge: It is important to be aware of things to be able to achieve what we want. If we want to buy a T.V. we need to know what features to look for, brands available. This will help in buying a better quality product.
   - b. Time: It is constant for everyone, 24 hours a day. The way a person manages and uses her time is her personal choice. A student may finish all the work before going to play; another may waste his time watching television or talking on the cell phone.
   - c. Energy: This is both mental and physical power of a person. To achieve goals, one needs to plan, organise and finally implement the plans. This would require both mental and physical energy.
   - d. Abilities and skill: These are inherited and acquired. These may include skills like cooking, decorating, gardening. Each individual has particular abilities with which he/she can achieve his/her goals. These skills can also be developed by systematic learning and practice.
   - e. Attitude: These are opinions or feelings a person has towards a thing which may hinder or help in achieving his goals. A positive attitude may help a person achieve what he wants whereas a negative attitude may hinder her in achieving what she wants.
2. Non-human Resources: These are tools and assets that families have at their disposal to achieve what they want. These are available for everyone to use. A person works hard and earns money to be used by him and his family. He/she may buy material goods or land from this money and may build a house on this land. Community facilities like banks, post offices, parks, and library. These are tangible and are more identifiable.
   - a. Money: It is the pivotal resource which can be exchanged to buy material things, commodities and services. It can also be used for future use and thus gives a sense of security to the family.
   - b. Material goods: These include durable goods or perishable goods used and owned by a family in their everyday use. Land, house, furniture and vehicle are examples. These help to make life easier and more comfortable for all family members. Durable goods like land can also help families to earn or save money. If vegetables are grown
