process. Teaching is communicating and good teachers are always good communicators. It is also equally true for the learners. He who learns well is the one who participates well in the communication process. Good learners are always good receivers and responders. Communication, is a tool for teaching and learning, it is a two-way process. For proper interaction, teachers and students are required to acquire the art and technique of good communication.

Literarily the word "communication" means "to connect", to share or exchange.

Meaning of Communication

The term communication is derived from the Latin word "communis" which means to make common". Communication, therefore is the exchange of thoughts, messages, information, etc, by way of speech, signals or writing.

What is communication?

- Communication plays a key role in all aspects of life.
- Communications means: Contact (information exchange) between people, the exchange of thoughts, ideas and meanings.
- It is important to send signals (words, gestures) which can be understood by the sender and recipient.

Why we communicate?

We communicate to:

- Share our ideas and opinions
- Provide feedback to others
- Get information from others
- Gain power and influence
- Develop social Relationships
- Maintain self-expression and our culture

8.1 DEFINITION OF COMMUNICATION

According to W.H Norman and Summer "Communication is an exchange of facts, ideas, opinions or emotions by two or more persons".

According to Edger Dale "Communication is defined as the sharing of ideas and feeling in a mood of mutuality".

According to Theo Haiman defined, "Communication is the process of passing information and understanding from one person to another."

8.1.1 Functions of Communication

Communication as a human activity always serves a function.

Chapter8_185-205.indd 186 31-01-2019 15:36:21