Email first entered limited use in the 1960s and by the mid 1970s had taken the form now recognized as email

What is an Email Message?

An email message is a text typically brief and informal, that is sent or received over a computer network. While email messages are usually simple text messages, attachments (such as image files and spreadsheets) can be included. An email Message can be sent to multiple recipients at the same time.

Examples of an Email?

The general format of an email address is local-part@domain, and a specific example is jsmith@example.com. An address consists of two parts. The part before the @ symbol (local-part) identifies the name of a mailbox. This is often the username of the recipient, E.g. jsmith
