Appendix_255-261.indd 256

	2-3 YEAR OLDS	3-4 YEAR OLDS	4-5 YEAR OLDS	5-6 YEAR OLDS	6-7 YEAR OLDS	7-8 YEAR OLDS
Socio –emotional skills	• Separates from mother to go to preschool. • Watches other children, joins sometimes in their play. • Defends own possessions • Cannot share work space. • Enjoys floor plays. • Enjoys praise • Helps adults put toys away. • Insists on doing things independently. • Uses spoon, spilling little. • Begins to understand cleanliness.	• Initiates social interaction with another child. • Shars toys, materials. • Enjoys dress up clothes, waits and takes turns. • Enjoys simple humor. • Begins dramatic play such as playing house, pretending to be animals. • Participatesin small group, teacher directed activity for 10 -15 minutes.	• Gets along well in small groups. • Plays simple table games • Resolves problems with peers. • Distinguishes fantasy from reality • Talks about experiences / events and own feelings. • Brushes teeth with supervision. • Takes and keeps the material back at appropriate place	• Very social and makes friends more easily. • Has poise and control • Plays competitive games. • Engages in cooperative play with rules and roles assigned. • Provides alternative solutions in difficult situations. • Participates in independent work for 20 minutes.	• Identifies with others i.e outside the family. • Learns to control their emotions. • Tells needs and wants instead of snatching or using force. • Understands and empathises with others (feels sad or happy, when someone close is sad or happy) • Play with rules, takes centre stage. Begins to enjoy computer games, board games.	• Begins to develop a sense a sense of self or personal identity. • Becomes better negotiators and co-operates with others • Understands the rules and abides by them. • Likely to define oneself through internal characteristic such as, “I am smart and I am popular” or I feel proud when teachers assigns me responsibility in school”,

12-02-2019 13:58:20