Appendix_255-261.indd 258

	2-3 YEAR OLDS	3-4 YEAR OLDS	4-5 YEAR OLDS	5-6 YEAR OLDS	6-7 YEAR OLDS	7-8 YEAR OLDS
Cognitive skills	• Short attention span, moving quickly from 0ne activity to another. • Identifies big/ small objects. • Touches and counts 1-3 objects. • Matches 3 colours. • Learning is mostly based on exploration. • Identifies own drawing. • Names objects that go together. • Finds difficulty in distinguishing between reality and fantasy. • Understand the concept of “one”	• Classifies objects/ pictures in categories. • Touches and counts 4 or more objects. • Identifies and names 4 colours. • Workds on puzzles 94-5 pieces.) • Asks why for information. • Repeats 3 numerals. • Continue to have difficulty between fantasy and reality.	• Has more extended attention span. • Draws, names and describes recognizable pictures. • Knows own age. • Recognises and names some letters and numerals. • Knows home address. • Can compare 3 pictures. • Can tell similarities and differences. • Can tell what material objects are made of. • Learns to distinguish between real and unreal.	Activities and attention span widened. • Names all numerals (1-10) and most alphabet letters. • Completes puzzle of 10 or more pieces. • Time concepts are expanding (Diwali will come after two weeks). • Longer attention span.	• Understanding moves from ego-centric to objective. • Shows a good grasp of topological relations for e.g inside-outside; top-below. • Begins to understand the ordinal numbers. • Plays with numbers to learn to count.	• Begins to develop abstract thinking, but is not advanced • Likes to collect things. • Begins to conserve length and weight • Tell the difference between right and left. • Can do single digit addition and subtraction problems. • Attention span widened.

12-02-2019 13:58:20