Appendix_255-261.indd 259

	2-3 YEAR OLDS	3-4 YEAR OLDS	4-5 YEAR OLDS	5-6 YEAR OLDS	6-7 YEAR OLDS	7-8 YEAR OLDS
Language skills	• Says her name points to pictures of common objects when they're named. • Talks to self in mirror. • Understands no, not, don't and can't. • Enjoys listening to simple, short story books. • Identifies pictures of action words (eating claping, running). • Enjoys looking at picture books. • Verbalizes wants • Struggling to make sense of the world.	• Says full name talk in sentence of 4-5 words. • Tells about past experiences. • Continue to talk out loud to themselves as they play with materials. • Tells action in picture. • Makes up words and rhymes. • Asks for explanations. • Speech is understandable but there are still some sound errors. • Likes to talk with adults.	• Can identify and pint to pictures described. • 'Reads' pictures. • Provides rhyming words to complete a seti.e bat, rat,) • Asks for explanations. • Well formed sentence structure. • Follows instructions in proper order. • Understands comparatives like big, bigger and biggest. • Uses verbal directions into play activities.	• Retell story from picture book with reasonable accuracy. • Pretends or acts out a story. • Listens and takes turns in group discussion. • Loves to talk • Speaks fluently and clearly. • Uses more complex sentences. • Asks meaning of words. • Reads 10 common words. • Communicates well with family members and friends and strangers.	• Enjoys riddles and word games. • Finds pleasure in language and literacy games for e.g riddles, rhyming games, tongue twisters ect. • Exchanges ideas and opinions. • Uses, newly acquired literacy skills to record their ideas in simple short stories. • Communicate their thoughts in a much better way, about the story book they have read.	• Creates their own riddles. • Enjoys simple ross-word pzlles,riddles and word games • Shares and talks anout her/his opinion • Becomes interested in reading books • Tells more concreately what they are interested in, e.g., their likes/dislikes and interests. • Talks about her/his drawings and writings

12-02-2019 13:58:20