- Unfavorable family relationships- Conflicts often occur between adults and adolescents due to the generation gap between them.

(iii) Adolescence is a problem age

Adolescence is known as a problem age because they are faced with many challenges that arise due to the anatomical, psychological changes. This is further enhanced by peer pressure and conflicts with parents and elders. Most of these problems are aggravated due to misleading and misguiding parents, teachers and friends, ignorance of elders, being half informed or ill-informed about the realities in life and wrong messages and concepts depicted though the media

(iv) Adolescence is period when there is search for identity

Adolescence is the period of transition between childhood and adulthood. It is a stressful and confusing period because at times they are expected by the society to think and behave in mature manner. At the same time, they are often reprimanded for the same and are demanded to be meek and submissive as they are under the control of parents, elders and teachers. The conflicts that arise due to this, cause a lot of stress among adolescents as they are confused whether they should be like children or behave as adults.

(v) Adolescence is a time of unrealism

Many adolescents have unrealistic goals and aspirations. They live in an imaginary world. These unrealistic thinking pattern may often lead to anxiety and depression especially when they are not able to fulfill their goals. For this purpose, it is important for parents, teachers and elders to guide adolescents into identifying their strengths, weakness, opportunities and challenges and help them set realistic goals based on available resources

National Youth Day is celebrated in India on 12 January on the birthday of Swami Vivekananda. In 1984 the Government of India declared the day as the National Youth Day and since 1985 the event is celebrated in India every year. To quote from the Government of India's communication, 'it was felt that the philosophy of Swamiji and the ideals for which he lived and worked could be a great source of inspiration for the Indian Youth.'

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

Delinquency is a problem associated with the period of adolescence. It is engaging in activities which are against law and are punishable. When a delinquent act is committed by a child or young person before the age of age of 18 it is called juvenile delinquency.

A list of delinquent act by minors include committing theft of valuables, burglary, looting, black mailing, murdering, raping, leading immoral life like prostitution, drinking, gambling, smuggling, drug addiction and anti-social acts like damaging public utilities etc.

Causes of delinquency

i. Personal causes- A person's physical defects, aggressiveness and low intelligence make a person prone to delinquency.
ii. Family causes- Children from broken homes lack love and affection and a feeling of security.
