tried crop rotations are widely practised. Viticulture is mostly practised in Italy, France and Germany.

Vineyard

As for industrial crops, European Russia, Ukraine, and Belarus are large producers of flax and hemp, sugar beets and sunflower seeds. Tobacco is grown in Belarus and is also important in Bulgaria, Italy, and Macedonian Greece.

European Russia, Sweden and Finland are the major producers of softwood and hardwood. Fishing is a large industry in Norway, Iceland, Russia, Denmark, the United Kingdom, the Netherlands etc., The Dogger Bank in North Sea is an important fishing ground in Europe.

Industries

Europe produces a significant portion of the world's steel and iron ore. Shipbuilding, motor-vehicle and aircraft construction are widely distributed all over Europe. Europe is also a large producer of pharmaceutical drugs.

A wide range of small-scale industries (i.e., those that produce nondurable goods) is found throughout Europe. Some countries have a reputation for specialty goods, as in the case of English, Italian, and Dutch bicycles, Swedish and Finnish glass, Parisian perfumes and fashion goods and Swiss precision instruments.

Cultural Mosaic of Europe

Europe is the third most populous continent, after Asia and Africa. The population of Europe was 742 million in 2018, which accounted for 9.73% of the world's population. The population density in Europe is 34 persons / km^2.

High population density is often associated with the coalfields of Europe. Other populous areas are sustained by mining, manufacturing, commerce, offering large market, labour forces and productive agriculture. Monaco, Malta, San Marino, and the Netherlands are the most densely populated countries; Iceland and Norway have very low density of population. In general, population is scantiest in the mountain regions, some highlands, arid parts of Spain and the Arctic regions of Russia. Monaco has the highest density of population in Europe (26,105 persons / km^2) as well as in the world. Iceland has a very low density of population (3 persons/ km^2).

Religion & Language

Europe is a continent of great linguistic and cultural difference. English, Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian and Slavic are the broadly spoken languages in Europe. Christianity is the major religion in Europe. A considerable number of Hindus, Muslims and Jews are spread throughout Europe. More than 90 percent of the people belong to the Caucasoid race.
