DO YOU KNOW?

The biggest tree in the world:

General Sherman (Giant Sequoia Tree) in California's Sequoia National Park in Tulare country in the United States of California. By volume it is the largest known living single stem tree on earth.

Volume: 52000 cubic feet (1487 m^3)

Height: 84 m

Weight: 1.9 million kilogram.

Characteristics of Teak Wood

i. It shrinks very little and its fibres are straight.
ii. It can be worked easily and finally polished.
iii. It weighs 7700 N/m^3.
iv. Its colour is yellow to dark brown.
v. It is one of the most valuable timber in the world.

Uses: It is used for ship building, railway sleepers, for making furniture and railway carriages and also for structural and decorative purposes.

5.1.2.2 Sal Wood

It is available mostly in hilly areas of UP, Bihar, Assam and Visakhapatnam.

Characteristics of Sal Wood

i. Wood is hard, close grained, heavy and durable.
ii. Not easily attacked by white ants and seasons.
iii. Average weight is 8600 N/$m.^3$

Civil_English_Unit_5.indd 104 12/21/2019 3:22:42 PM