"Salim," the old man searched for words. "I...I...I...only wanted to help," whispered the boy, "I...I'll learn, if you teach me Masterjee! I have practised secretly for almost two years in the quarry."

"Please tell me! For many years, I wanted to become a sculptor like you yet I fought the feeling. But it proved too strong. I know there is nothing in this world I would like to do more, there is nothing in life that I could do better. I want to become a stonecarver. Will you please teach me, Masterjee?"

The old man pulled the boy's head against his shoulder and whispered, "There's nothing I can teach you my son beta. Go ahead. You have it in your hands and in your heart. I know you will be one of the country's finest stonecarvers."
