Scene IV

: Mother Wolf threw herself down panting among the cubs, and Father Wolf said to her gravely.

: Shere Khan speaks this much truth. The cub must be shown to the Pack. Will you still keep him, Mother?

: Keep him! (She gasps) He came naked, by night, alone and very hungry; yet he was not afraid! Look, he has pushed one of my babes to one side already. And that lame butcher would have killed him and would have run off to the Waingunga while the villagers here hunted through all our lairs in revenge! Keep him? Assuredly I will keep him.

Lie still, little frog. O you Mowgli – for Mowgli the Frog I will call you – the time will come when you will hunt Shere Khan as he has hunted you.

The story does not end here. It continues with many more episodes such as the acceptance of Mowgli by the Pack of Wolves, the friendship between Bagheera and Mowgli, Mowghli's adventurous trips in the jungle with Baloo (the bear), the fight between Mowgli and the Monkey's gang etc. Eventually Mowgli is forced to leave the jungle and he goes to live in the village. Later, he decides to return to the jungle and live there.
