- Add a few high end or specialty items(choose 2-3 items that are little more expensive).
- Create unique names for the items in the menu (ex: Chicken manchow – Chinese soup).
- Write down the menu items.
- Order the menu in a logical way (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner).
- Pricing the menu – adjust menu prices to maximize profits, average income of the people in that area and end prices in whole numbers.
- Create a rough draft by looking through different templates, power point and websites.
- Choose a colour scheme that matches the style of the restaurant.
- Select a presentation style that fits with the restaurant's concept.
- Use a menu template for an easier menu design.
- Take pictures of the food to create an appetizing menu
- Determine how many menu cards needed based on the number of tables.
- Proof read the menu before printing.

DO YOU KNOW?

Restaurant -
Restaurant comes from the French term 'restaurer' which means "to provide food for". Common examples of restaurants include burger joints, cafeterias, pizzerias, sandwich shops, steak houses, seafood snacks, hot dog stands, ice cream parlors, Chinese takeouts, bakeries and fine dining establishments.

7.4 Types of Cuisines

A cuisine is a cooking style denoting varieties of food prepared by a restaurant from a certain region or country. There are different types of cuisines all over the world. Each country or region has its own style.
