Chapter 7 Menus and Cuisines

7.1 Preparation of a North Indian Cuisine

Aim: To know about the preparation of a recipe from North Indian cuisine.

Equipment needed: Pressure pan, kadai, spoons, cups, mixer/blender.

Unique Features of North Indian Cuisine

- Foods of North Indian cuisine are wholesome and very rich in nutrients and tasty.
- Milk and milk products like paneer, curd, cream are used abundantly.
- Spices, masala powders and curry powders are used.
- Channa masala or chole masala is a classic Indian vegetarian dish prepared with Kabul channa.

Channa Masala

Ingredients		Quantity
Channa/kondaikadalai	:	1 cup
Onion	:	2 medium
Tomato (Big ones)	:	2 large
Green chilli	:	1
Ginger	:	1 inch piece
Garlic	:	3 pods
Salt	:	as required

Spice powder

Turmeric powder	:	¼ tsp
Chilli powder	:	1 tsp
Coriander powder	:	2 tsp
Channa masala powder	:	2 tsp

▲ Plate 7.1 Channa Masala

For the seasoning

Oil	:	2 tsp
Cumin seeds	:	1 tsp
Bay leaf	:	1

R99M4S

Method

- Soak channa overnight and pressure cook channa with a little salt for 4-5 whistles and cooked channa should be soft.

FSM_Practical_ch7.indd 171 20-02-2019 5.49.17 PM