1.5 General Etiquettes in Food Service Operation

The guest or the customer is the most important person in a food service operation and there are certain general rules or etiquettes to be followed so that the customer is satisfied. The following are some basic etiquettes:

Do's

- Receive the guests with smile as soon as they enter the restaurant.
- Wish them good morning, good afternoon, good evening, and good night based on the time of the day.
- Help the ladies to take their seats by pulling the chair.
- Serve water as soon as guests are seated.
- Present the menu card.
- Help the children below 5 years with babysitting chairs.
- Take orders of food from the guest, who will pay the bill.
- Inform the guest the time required to serve the food.
- Serve preplated food from right hand side and if not preplated to serve individual items from left hand side.
- Be attentive to guest's tables.
- Fulfill the requirements of the customers quickly.
- Clear the used or soiled plates from the right side of the customer.
- Present the bill.
- Accompany the guest to the door politely and send them off.
- Then clear and reset the table.

Don'ts

- Do not interrupt when the guests are taking food.
- Do not over hear conversation.
- Do not argue with the guests even though they may be wrong.
- Do not touch hair or nose, mouth while in service.
- Do not solicit for tips.
