d. Ambience: Atmosphere is determined by the décor, uniforms of staff, dress codes of staff, type of service and cutlery and crockery.

The customer's first impression of the restaurant will be the final impression. It can be done by a good table setting that complement the menu and the decor. Desirable ambience can be achieved by maintaining hygienic standards, impeccable hospitality skills, good music, right colour combination and furniture to suit the theme of the restaurant. Comfort with furniture impacts ambience. Creating more space for customers will make them feel at ease. The lighting enhances the visibility of the food and hence helps in increasing the appearance in turn helps to gain attention. Perfect lighting and creating good mood to eat will make up ambience.

This phenomenon of making food tailored for each customer will have many advantages to the food service institution. It helps to increase the customer turnover and customer satisfaction. It also increases the confidence of the food service institution among the customers.
