Alliteration is the repetition of the same consonant letters or similar sounds at the beginning words in a set or series of words.

- wild wind
- curious clock
- splendid scholar
- memorable moments
- creepy crawlies

Imagery is the way that a writer helps reader visualize or see in their minds what is being described. These images often suggest emotions. Images appeal to one or more of the five senses: sight, hearing, touch, taste or smell.

For example

- It was dark and cloudy in the woods.
- The boys were screaming and shouting in the playground.
- The mountain was spewing and spitting the smoke.
- The sauce was sweet and sour.
