Exercise:

Answer the following.

1. Write a sentence using 'as fast as the wind'.
2. Write a simile using the word 'like'.
3. Create a simile using the word 'as'.
4. What does 'as smart as a fox' mean?

2. Metaphor:

A 'Metaphor' is quite similar to a 'Simile', as a 'Metaphor' also compares two unlike things. But a Metaphor has an implied or a hidden meaning between unrelated things. Here, for a Metaphor we do not use words such as 'like' or 'as'. Unlike Similes which compare two things, Metaphors directly state a comparison to things that are in no way similar. We can use Metaphors to explain an idea, but its literal meaning should not be taken. It is only to be used as a symbolism.

Examples:

- My father was boiling mad. (implies that he was too angry)
- She is the apple of my eye. (implies that she is too dear to me)
- Your brain is a computer. (implies that your brain is smart and quick)
- Her voice is music to his ears. (implies that her voice makes him feel happy)
- The given task was a breeze. (implies that the task was not difficult)

Exercise:

1. Which of the given options is a Metaphor?

   a) Life is like a chocolate box. b) Raj is like his twin brother.

   c) His words are pearls of wisdom. d) The bus is slow as a snail.

2. What does "The world is a stage" mean?

3. Identify the Metaphor in the sentence.

   Her hair is always a rat's nest in the morning.

4. Write a sentence on your own that includes a Metaphor.

William Shakespeare invented over 1700 of our common words by changing nouns into verbs, changing verbs into adjectives, connecting words never before used together, adding prefixes and suffixes and devising words wholly original.
