EVALUATION

RZMYID

I. Choose the correct answer: (1 mark.)

1. The nurse needs to maintain the oral hygiene of the patient in order to:
   a. Make the patient feel happy.
   b. Promote the patient appetite.
   c. Help the patientcommunicate well.

2. Which is the best brush recommended by most dental professionals for removing plaque and debris from your teeth?
   a. A soft-bristled brush is best.
   b. A medium-bristled brush is best.
   c. A hard-bristled brush is best.

3. How frequently should a tooth brush be changed?
   a. Once in 2 months.
   b. Once in 3 months.
   c. Once in 4 months.

4. Dental caries is commonly seen in which group of people?
   a. Over 35years.
   b. Younger people.
   c. Infants.

5. Jyothi, a housewife has complaints of cracking of the lips especially at the ankle of the mouth. Which one of the oral problems describes it best?
   a. Halitosis.
   b. Stomatitis.
   c. Cheilosis.

6. From the above scenario, what can be the cause for Jyothi's oral problem?
   a. Diabetes.
   b. Riboflavin deficiency.
   c. Tobacco chewing.

7. Which area of the body is pediculosis pubis isfound in?
   a. Head.
   b. Pubic.
   c. Body.

8. Dry Eye Syndrome is caused due to one of the following?
   a. Poor hygiene.
   b. Insufficient tear production.
   c. Sleeping insufficiently.

9. Otitis media is the:
   a. Infection of the ear lobe.
   b. Inflammation of the middle ear.
   c. Infection of the inner ear.

10. Athlete' s foot is caused by one of the following:
   a. Fungal infection.
   b. Inflammation of the surrounding tissue.
   c. Excessive perspiration.

II. Write short answers: (3 marks.)

1. List three factors influencing personal hygienic practices.
2. What are the purposes of oral hygiene?
3. What is Psoriasis?

Nursing-voc_Unit 05.indd 168 22-02-2019 4.45.37 PM