unable to walk or walk with aid whether he is in pain.

Level of consciousness: Is a measurement of a person's arousability and responsiveness to stimulate from the environment. Whether fully conscious, drowsy or comatosed.

Skin: The client's skin is uniform in color, unblemished and no presence of any foul odour. He has a good skin turgor and skin's temperature is within normal limit.

Hair: The hair is thick, silky hair is evenly distributed and has a variable amount of body hair There are also no signs of infection and infestation observed.

Nails: The client has a light brown nail and has the shape of convex curve. It is smooth and is intact with the epidermis. When nails pressed between the fingers (Blanch Test), the nails return to usual color in less than 4 seconds.

Head: The head of the client is rounded; normocephalic and symmetrical.

Skull: There are no nodules or masses and depressions when palpated.

Face: The face of the client appeared smooth and has uniform consistency and with no presence of nodules or masses.

Eyes: The Bulbar conjunctiva appeared transparent with few capillaries evident. The sclera appeared white. The palpebral conjunctiva appeared shiny, smooth and pink.

There is no edema or tearing of the lacrimal gland.

Mouth: The lips of the client are uniformly pink; moist, symmetric and have a smooth texture. The client was able to purse his lips when asked to whistle.

Teeth and Gums: There are no discoloration of the enamels, no retraction of gums, pinkish in color of gums. The buccal mucosa of the client appeared as uniformly pink; moist, soft, glistening and with elastic texture. The tongue of the client is centrally positioned. It is pink in color, moist and slightly rough. There is a presence of thin whitish coating. The smooth palates are light pink and smooth while the hard palate has a more irregular texture. The uvala of the client is positioned in the midline of the soft palate.

Nose: The nose appeared symmetric, straight and uniform in color. There was no presence of discharge or flaring. When lightly palpated, there were no tenderness and lesions.

Ears: The Auricles are symmetrical and has the same color with his facial skin. The auricles are aligned with the outer canthus of eye. When palpating for the texture, the auricles are mobile, firm and not tender. The pinna recoils when folded.

Neck: The neck muscles are equal in size. The client showed coordinated, smooth head movement with no discomfort. The lymph nodes of the client are not palpable. The trachea is placed in the midline of the neck.

Chest: The chest wall is intact with no tenderness and masses. There's a full and Nursing-voc_Unit 06.indd 175 22-02-2019 4.45.55 PM