Unit 8

HANDWASHING TECHNIQUE

8.1 DEFINITION

A technique of cleaning hands is to prevent transmission of micro-organisms.

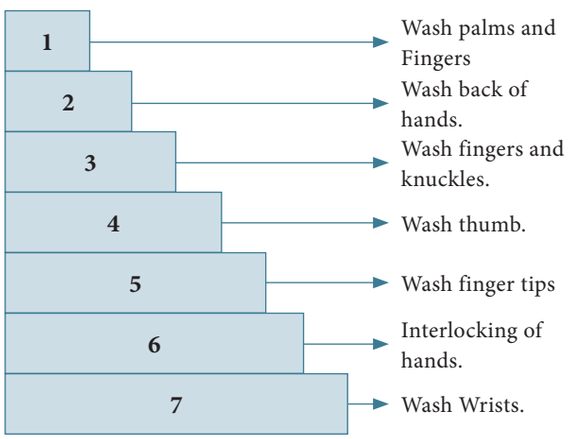

Purpose

- Cleanliness.
- Aesthetic Feeling.
- To prevent cross infection.

Indication

- At the end of each task.
- Before handling clean articles.
- Before surgical procedures and delivery.
- Before serving or eating food.
- When even necessary.

8.2 EFFECTIVE HAND WASHING STEPS

GUIDELINES FOR MAINTAINING AND WASHING

- Cut nails short to prevent accumulation of dirt.
- Remove jewelery to ensure through cleaning.
- Remove the wrist watch and push long uniform sleeves above wrists.
- Inspect the surface of the hands and fingers for breaks or cuts in skin and cuticles.

8.4 MEDICAL HAND WASHING

Equipments needed

- Sink with warm running water.
- Antimicrobial soap / Regular soap.
- Clean towel.

Procedure

- Stand in front of sink, keeping hands and uniform away from sink surface.
- Open tap and wet below hand (hold hands below level) thoroughly under running water.
- Keep hands and forearms lower than elbows during washing.
- Apply 1ml of regular 3ml antiseptic liquid soap to hands lathering thoroughly.

Nursing-Voc_Practical_Unit 8.indd 298 23-02-2019 3.20.03 PM