3. Hindrance of time

Consumers want products whenever they have money, time and willingness to buy. Goods are produced in anticipation of such demands. They are stored in warehouses in different regional centres so that they can be distributed at the right time to the consumers.

4. Hindrance of risk of loss

Fire, theft, floods and accidents may bring huge loss to the business. Insurance companies serve to cover the risk of such losses.

5. Hindrance of knowledge

Advertising and communication help in announcing the arrival of new products and their uses to the people.

6. Hindrance of finance

Producers and traders may not have the required funds at the time of their need. Banks and other financial institutions provide funds and help in transfer of funds to enable the functioning of business smoothly.
