23.06 Wholesaler

Wholesale Trade means buying and selling goods in relatively large quantities or in bulk. The traders who are engaged in wholesale trade are called wholesalers.

A wholesaler buys goods in bulk directly from manufacturers and sells them in small lots to customers or industrial users. A wholesaler is the first intermediary and serves as a link between producers and retailers. Wholesalers place large orders with producers and supply in small quantities to retailers. In this way wholesaler serve both manufacturers and retailers.

Definition

According to Cundiff and still "wholesaler buys from the producer and sell merchandise to the retailers and other merchants and not to the consumers".

According to Evelyn Thomas "a true wholesaler is himself neither a manufacturer nor a retailer but act as a link between the two".
