

is liable for all the acts and debts of the firm as if he were a real partner, though he does not get any share in the firm's profit.

iv. Partner in Profits only

When a person joins a firm as a partner on the condition that he is entitled to a specified share of the firm's profit only, he is called a partner in profits only. It means that he will not be called upon to bear any portion of the losses sustained. He will, however, be liable to third parties for all the debts of the firm like any other partner. Such partners usually do not take part in the management of the business.

v. Partner by Estoppel

In case, a person represents himself/ herself by words or actions or has allowed him to be represented as a partner of the firm, even though he is not a partner, he is called partner by estoppels. Such a partner cannot deny his liability, if outside party lends money to the firm supposing him to be a partner.

vi. Partner by Holding out

When a person is declared as a partner and he does not deny this even after becoming aware of it, he becomes liable to the third party, who lends money or credit to the firm on the basis of such a declaration.

vii. Secret Partner

A secret partner is one whose association is not known to the general public. Other than this distinct feature, he is like rest of the partners in all respects.

viii. Minor Partner

Under the Indian Majority Act, person who has not completed 18 years of age is a minor. However, he will continue to be a minor till he completes 21 years if a guardian has been appointed to the minor. He can be admitted to the benefits of partnership.
