Features of Public Corporation

i. Special Statute

A public corporation is created by a special Act of the Parliament or the State Legislature. The Act defines its powers, objectives, functions and relations with the ministry and the Parliament (or State Legislature).

ii. Separate Legal Entity

A public corporation is a separate legal entity with perpetual succession and common seal. It has an existence, independent of the Government. It can own properly; can make contracts and file suits, in its own name.

iii. Capital Provided by the Government

The capital of a public corporation is provided by the Government or by agencies controlled by the government. However, many public corporations have also begun to raise money from the capital market.

iv. Financial Autonomy

A public corporation enjoys financial autonomy. It prepares its own budget; and has authority to retain and utilize its earnings for its business.

v. Management by Board of Directors

Its management is vested in a Board of Directors, appointed or nominated by the Government. But there is no Governmental interference in the day-to-day working of the corporation.

vi. Own Staff

A publication corporation has its own staff; whose appointment, remuneration and service conditions are decided by the corporation itself.

vii. Service Motive

The main objective of a public corporation is service-motive; though it is expected to the self-supporting and earn reasonable profits.

viii. Public Accountability

A public corporation has to submit its annual report on its working. Its accounts are audited by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India. Annual report and audited accounts of a public corporation are presented to the Parliament or State Legislatures, which is entitled to discuss these.
