Model Letters:

Formal letters

A formal/official letter is brief and formal in style but courteous in language. There is no room for affectation of any kind. We must avoid colloquialisms and slang. However, nowadays, the use of stiff impersonal style is discarded and a less formal and involved style is preferred. An 'open punctuation' has become common nowadays, saving a lot of typing time.

The following steps are to be borne in mind in writing:

Formal letters:

1. Think before you write.
2. Plan your letter.
3. Make the first draft (focus on the matter, brief, crisp style, suitable subscription, etc.)
4. Edit the draft.
5. Present carefully–Use proper layout.

Parts of a formal letter:

Address of the sender preferably without name. Write the date below your address. Address of the person you are writing to.

Mention subject of letter:

Salutation or greeting – The following convention of addressing is followed:

When you address a person: Sir / Madam

When you address more than one person: Sirs

Body of the letter:

Subscription or Complimentary close: If you have addressed a company by its name or a person by his designation, end with "Yours faithfully".

If you have addressed a person by name end with 'Yours sincerely'.

Signature

7. Address on the envelope

Note: The modern trend is (American) to keep the alignment to the left.

Letter of Complaint

1. Read the following letter of complaint written to an electronics goods shop complaining about a faulty new television

From

M. Tamizhselvan,
174, Vinoba Nagar,
Chengalpet,
Kanchipuram District.
10 February 2018

To

The Manager,
Viman & Co.,
Anna Salai,
Chennai-02

Sir,

Sub: Faulty TV set - Reg.

I bought a 21" colour TV from you on 17.1.2018 and the bill number is 13798. I wish to point out that the remote control device is not functioning properly. The TV set is no better. There is no visual clarity. I wish you had checked these things meticulously before delivery.

I request you to send your staff member to check these items and replace them.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
M. Tamizhselvan.
(9900010000)

Address on the envelope

The Manager,
Viman& Co.,
Anna Salai, Chennai-02.

Unit-6_130-158_SPC_Appendix - March-11-2018.indd 133 21-01-2019 10:41:17