Dear Amma and Appa,

I am safe and hope you are fine.

My exams are on and the holidays will soon begin from the 24th of December. The school has planned to take us on an eco-trip to Pitchavaram near Chidambaram for four days. I would like to join the trip with my friends. Kindly sign the attached consent form so that I can join the trip. As I have to pay a sum of one thousand rupees towards it, kindly send the money as early as possible.

Convey my love and regards to all at home.

With love,
Aruna.

Task: Write a letter to your friend who lives in Pitchavaram asking him to give you some details about the place.

Email

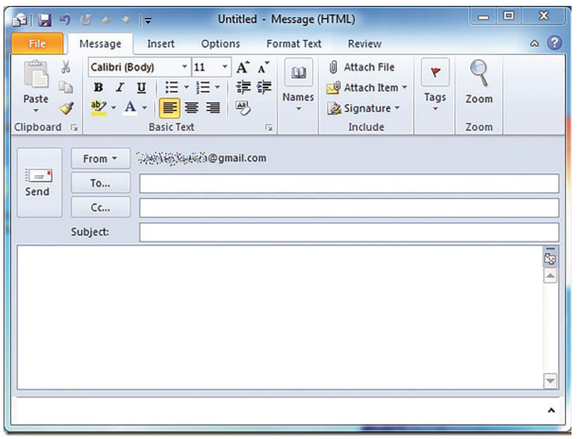

Task: After the trip, Aruna decides to send an e-mail to her friend about the places she visited and share her experiences. Help her write an e-mail.

E-mail is an effective tool to communicate at a great speed across the globe through which one can send a lot of data/information.

One can attach files of different types– text, graphics, audio and video.

Voice-mail helps you to listen to your message as well.

E-mails should be clear, correct, concise and courteous. Use limited number of words.

Use appropriate punctuation marks. Write the subject line in such a way that it tells the receiver what the e-mail is exactly about. Don't use capital letters entirely. It may seem rude.

Project

a. Brochure

A brochure is an informative paper document (often also used for advertising) that can be folded into a pamphlet or leaflet. Brochures are promotional documents, primarily used to introduce a company, organization, products or services and inform prospective customers or members of the public of the benefits.

Brochures are placed inside newspapers, handed out personally or placed in brochure racks in high traffic locations. They are usually found at tourist spots.

Things to include in a Travel Brochure:

- A brief summary of the setting, with highlights of important places
- Location, including a map
