Mr.Agasthiyar: In fact, I haven't been enjoying good health of late. I had continuous high-grade fever continuously and severe bouts of cold. I was down with typhoid, followed by a malarial attack. As I was recuperating, I slipped down the stairs and fractured my arm. I also sustained a ligament tear in my left ankle. To top it all I almost had a cardiac arrest. I was admitted in the hospital. I was there for ten days. I was discharged only last week. I'm convalescing at my son's place now. The neighbour over there coughs all night. I'm already suffering from insomnia. I thought I could go over to my daughter's place in Bengaluru. But you know I have wheezing, and the climate over there might aggravate it. Moreover….

Mr. Arogyam: But what does the doctor suggest?

Mr.Agasthiyar: Which doctor?

Mr. Arogyam: The doctor at the clinic, where I see you, whenever I pass by.

Mr. Agasthiyar: Well, that's my clinic, and I'm the doctor.
