Kannan: Why is that?

Hema: Laser printers are of high quality and they use laser beams.

Kannan: I'll go in for laser then.

Hema: Here it is.

Kannan: Thank you, Madam.

Task: Practise the above conversation in pairs.

Task: You have purchased a new computer. Your younger sister is curious to know about the various parts. Talk to her informing her about the computer and its various parts.

c. English for Hospitality

The word hospitality means 'act of being friendly and welcoming to guests and visitors'. Hospitality is about serving guests and making them feel good. The hospitality industry has three primary areas. The first area is accommodation, which includes hotels, motels, bed and breakfast, and other kinds of lodging. The next area is food and beverage. This area comprises restaurants, fast food, chains and other establishments that provide food and beverages. Food and beverage providers might be located in hotels or stand alone facilities. The last area of the hospitality industry is travel and tourism, which includes airlines, trains, and cruise ships.

Task: Role-play the following dialogue with the help of your teacher and extend the conversation.

Hotel Clerk: Welcome to Hotel Vimaan, Sir, how may I help you?

Mr. Mani: Hello. I would like an AC room with a double bed.

Hotel Clerk: Do you have a reservation?

Mr. Mani: I'm afraid I don't.

Hotel Clerk: Hmmm. Let me see. We don't seem to have any rooms with double beds right now. We've got a large conference going on.

Mr. Mani: I see. So, what is available?

Hotel Clerk: Well, not much. It seems we have a small corner room on the 5th floor. It has a single bed and a bathroom with a shower.

Mr. Mani: And is it an air-conditioned room?

Hotel Clerk: No, it isn't. But that is the only room available now. Would you be interested in it?

Mr. Mani: Oh... That's terrible. I didn't realize... I should have made a reservation before I left home.

Hotel Clerk: Yes, you never know if there will be rooms available.

Mr. Mani: I guess I'll have to take that room, then. I don't have time to look for another hotel.

Hotel Clerk: Fine Sir. First, let me just have your name…
