Hotels are a whole different world! These are places where tourists, families and business people can relax during trips and official visits. They also offer fantastic job opportunities. But working in a hotel usually requires one specific skill: Efficiency and Proficiency in English.

At a Restaurant

Task: Rewrite the italicised dialogues into polite exchanges.

Waiter: Hello, what do you want?

(_____)

Sufeer: Yes, I would like to have some lunch.

Waiter: Do you want a starter?

(_____)

Sufeer: Yeah, I would like to have cauliflower Manchurian.

Waiter: No. We don't have it now. It's over.

(_____)

Sufeer: Then, let me have sweet-corn chicken soup.

Waiter: Next, what else do you want for the main-course?

(_____)

Sufeer: I would prefer Biriyani.

Waiter: OK. I shall bring it in five minutes.

(_____)

Sufeer: Thank you.
