snow-drift (n) : bank of deep snow

rumble (v) : make a low continuous noise

ebony (n) : deep black

furrow (n) : trench, ditch smother (v) : suffocate, cover thickly dart (v) : sudden quick movement

taunt (v) : tease

buffet (v) : knock against

spattered (v) : splashed

cowering (v) : cringing in fear

Car (n):
Car is the most widely spoken tribal language in the Nicobar Islands of India.

snaked (v):
moving in a winding course like a snake

rubbish tips (n):
a landfill site also known as a dumping ground

c. The boy happened to go to the relief camp where all Tsunami victims were accommodated. He was surprised to see his parents and relatives there. Form groups and dramatize the scene as a skit. You may play the roles of the characters given in the narration.

A skit is a short informal performance intended to educate or inform. In other words, it is a play or performance or quick, short scenes.

Plan and rehearse the skit with the help of your teacher and perform it.

Language Study

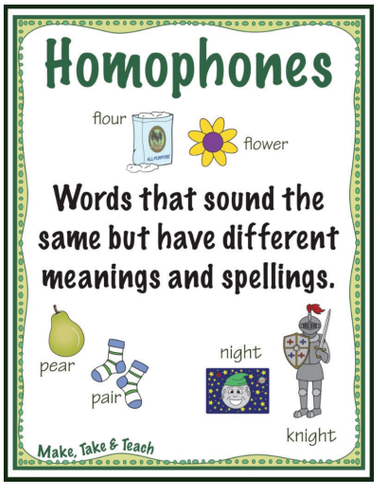

a. The word "bright" has different meanings in the sentences given below. Bring out the meaning of the word 'Bright' in each of the following sentences. (Refer to a Dictionary.)

i) Children like bright colours.
ii) Adhira gave me a bright smile.
iii) Adhul is a bright student.
iv) Sumaya has bright ideas.
v) This young player has a bright future.

DO YOU KNOW?

Some words can mean different things in different contexts. The verb "get" is a good example of a word with multiple meanings - it can mean "procure," "become," or "understand." The association of one word with multiple meanings is known as polysemy.

b. Homophones

Read the following examples:

i) bare, bear

bare: uncovered or not decorated. You should not touch the electric circuits with bare hands.

Unit-3-051-069_Confronting Critical Situation-March-11-2018.indd 53 21-01-2019 10:32:01