6.5.2 Moving and Coping text

Moving text

To move a text from one location to another

- select the text to be moved
- Click Ctrl + X or Cut Icon or Edit → Cut
- The text is removed from the source location and placed in the clipboard
- Take the insertion pointer to the new location to be moved and
- Click Ctrl + V or Paste Icon or Edit → Paste

The required text is moved to the new location.

Coping text

To copy a text from one location to another

- select the text to be copied
- Click Ctrl + C or Copy Icon or Edit → Copy
- A duplicate copy of the text is made and sent to the clipboard
- Take the insertion pointer to the new location to be copied and
- Click Ctrl + V or Paste Icon or Edit →Paste

The required text is copied to the new location.

The Editing shortcut keys are as given in Table 6.3.

Table 6.3 Cut, Copy , Paste Icons and shortcut keys

OPERATION	ACTION	ICONS	SHORTCUT KEY
CUT	Cuts the selected text		Ctrl +X
COPY	To make a duplication of the text.		Ctrl +C
PASTE	To paste the text to a new location after cut or copy process.		Ctrl +V
UNDO	Cancels the previous operation that was performed		Ctrl +Z

6.6 Help System in Writer

OpenOffice Writer provides several forms of help. By pressing F1 or select Help from the menu bar the help window appears as shown in Figure 6.15:

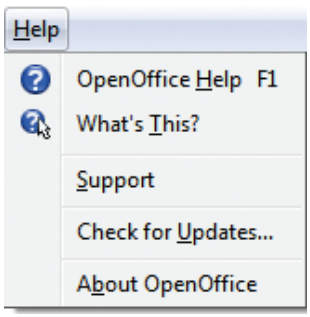

Figure 6.15 Help window

- To activate tooltips, extended tips, and the help Agent, click Tools → Options → OpenOffice