

LET US LEARN

The Monster Tree

It is very dark, and the wind is whistling, no one is around. One can hear the cry of a wolf far away. The bush is dancing to the wind's music. It seems as if it was a welcome dance. Behind the bush, there was a huge shadow. It moved slightly and, for a second, everything was quiet. No wind, no movement, nothing. There was dead silence. Suddenly, a bolt of massive lightning appeared with a rumble of thunder. In the lightning, I could see the tree. It was a monster tree. I got scared and wanted to run away. As I screamed in fear, the monster woke up. I could see it, now awake, transformed into a monster amid the bolts of lightning that hit the ground. I wanted to run, but I couldn't move my legs. The reeds from the bush have caught my legs, "Oh my god! It is going to kill me," I thought! I tried to free my legs but in vain. The monster's branches became very sharp, like a sword, and came towards me. My heart raced and, I felt it might burst. "Mommmmm!!"
