

Amudha thought for a second and said, "On the princess statue. She has already wored so many jewels that this will go unnoticed."

Everyone's eyes lit up. They walked straight to the princess statue. They saw the diamond necklace. Sreejith carefully removed it and kept it in his pocket. As soon as they came out, there was a senior policeman standing. The children went straight to him and handed over the diamond necklace. They told him the whole story. They were appreciated by Inspector Velayudham and Jessy's father for their courage and dedication towards the welfare of the city.
