Forms and uses of the Simple Past Tense

Uses

- To indicate an action that was completed in the past. Generally the adverbials of past time are used; sometimes without adverbials of time for an activity done in the past
- To express a habitual or regular action only in the past; It can also be expressed by using 'used to'
- In conditional clauses
- In the indirect form of speech
- To express two actions, where the first action leads instantly to the second action

e.g. When the meeting ended, the staff members came out.

Forms and Uses of Past Continuous Tense

	First person	Second person	Third person
Affirmative
Singular	I was singing. yesterday by this time.	You were singing when I was playing.	She/He/It was singing yesterday by this time.

Uses

- To express a state or an action that was continuing at a certain point of time in the past. It had begun before that point and was probably continuing after it. We use adverbials of time.

e.g. We were decorating the house for the birthday party in the morning.

- To express an action that was in progress in the past
