Uses of Auxiliary vebs

B. Can You do It?

- Talking about the abilities of your class members is a great way to review the use of the modal can.
- Work in pairs and discuss things a person might be able to do. Include things that some people can do and others cannot do, and make a list on the board.

Can you?

Example: Can you play the guitar?
Now you try:

Can you ----------?
Can you ----------?
Can you ----------?
Can you ----------?

- Once your list has 30-50 abilities, it's time to prepare for the game.
- Each of you will be given a blank paper and fill in the spaces with one of the abilities you listed on the board.
- Then, when the teacher says go, go around the classroom asking each other "Can you _____?", asking about one of the activities listed on the board.
- If the person you ask can do that activity, you mark off the square with his/her name.
- If the person asked cannot do it, move on and ask another person about that ability or another one on your paper.
- You can only ask each person about one ability before moving on to ask another classmate, but you can come back to the same person as often as you like.
- When someone gets five spaces in a row, he calls "BINGO."
