SPEAKING

G. You are the President of GO GREEN, the Environment Club of your school. On the occasion of World Environment Day, you have been asked to address the school on the topic, 'The Nature of Our Future Depends on the Future of Our Nature'.

PURPOSE

- To speak to a large gathering, convincingly and persuasively, to convert the listener's view to your point of view
- To pass on a wide range of information
- To express an opinion, view, experience, observation etc.

HOW TO DELIVER YOUR SPEECH

- Divide your speech into three parts: introduction, body and conclusion.
- Start with salutation. Greet your chief guests, audience, fellow speakers and other invitees.
- Begin your speech with a catchy introduction in the form of an anecdote, thought provoking question or statistical data.
- Express your views and give reasons for the stand you take.
- Convey thoughts and ideas with clarity.
- Be factually accurate and present a balanced view.
- Provide supporting data to prove your points.
- Make your speech interesting by adding elements of humour.
- Use language that is easily understood. Keep sentences short and simple.
- Sum up your ideas; give suggestions/remedies to improve the situation.
- Thank the audience and organizers.

REMEMBER

- Do not be aggressive in manner, words or gestures.
- Be neither rude and offensive nor meek and mild.
- Enunciate your words clearly. Maintain a normal volume. Do not scream into the mic.
