A BIRTHDAY LETTER

E. A Dialogue between Brothers

F3699W

Raghav: Hi Aadhav! I need to discuss something important with you.

Aadhav: Hi Raghav! I am free now. Come on. Let us discuss.

Raghav: Do you remember that coming April 2nd is our parents' wedding anniversary?

Aadhav: Thank you for reminding me, Bro. I have almost forgotten that. How shall we celebrate it?

Raghav: Shall we plan for a surprise celebration?

Aadhav: Yes, of course, Bro.

Raghav: How about inviting our friends and close relatives for the party to surprise our parents?

Aadhav: Yeah. That would be a real surprise! Shall we also have cake cutting?

Raghav: Yes, we shall. But, we have to do something unique. What else shall we do then?

Aadhav: Why don't we make our parents plant a sapling as a part of the celebration?

Raghav: That's a good one! I know a person who owns a nursery garden. I'll buy mango sapling and we'll make our parents plant it.

Aadhav: Great, it will be a memorable one. I have saved some money. Let's make use of it for the arrangements.

Raghav: Let me also contribute my savings to make this celebration useful and memorable.

THE STICK-TOGETHER FAMILIES

E. Listen to the Passage Family

F3F5BJ

Family is where we all belong to and from where our identity comes from. A person is valued based on his family and upbringing. Family is a bond, a long lasting relationship that holds a bond with each other. There are many values that one has to learn to get the family bonding in the right manner. Bonding does not happen overnight. It forms with every second, every minute that you spend with your loved ones. The understanding, the acceptance, the belonging and the security all enclosed together is how a family bond is formed.

A close family bond is like a safe harbour, where we feel secure and where we trust that
